A Few Definitions ...

Percentile Rank

Your Percentile Rank score shows how well you did in comparison to others who have taken this assessment. Your Percentile Rank Score represents the percentage of the population you scored as well as or better than. For example, a Percentile Rank of 62 would indicate that your performance was as good or better than that of 62% of all other participants to whom your performance was compared.

The Percentile Rank score on this report was based on a comparison of your performance to that of:

All participants who have completed this assessment.

Strengths and Needs

Your performance in a particular task is deemed a Strength, Need, or OK based on the following criteria:

Percentage Correct equal to or greater than 85 = Strength;

Percentage Correct between 70 and 85 = OK;

Percentage Correct less than 70 = Need.

Your Group's Range of Scores & Group Average Score

The bar graph indicates the range of percentage correct scores achieved by the other members of your group, from lowest to highest. The darker vertical line indicates the group's overall average score.

Your group is comprised of:

All the participants from your organization submitted for scoring at the same time.

A Direction for Growth

Assessing strengths is a critical step in the leadership development process. After all, you can't measure growth until you know where you stand. But it's by no means the final step. Think of this assessment as a compass that points you in the right directions for professional growth.

The next step is developing needs into strengths. Not sure where to start? Point your mouse online to our online Development Center. In it you'll find useful articles on a wide range of subjects from coaching employees to resolving conflict, and much in between. You can also review the KnowLEDGE for Leaders assessment questions, although, to protect the integrity of the assessment, correct answers are not provided online.
